

Why don't you join us for breakfast?

Circle Friday, September 9th on your calendar ASAP. That's the date of the 21st Annual Licking County Community Prayer Breakfast held in Adena Hall on the campus of Ohio State University-Newark/Central Ohio Technical College. As in past years, doors will open before 6am to a buffet breakfast with the program beginning at 6:30.

Our program this year celebrates the freedom we enjoy as individuals and as a country and honors the sacrifices made to gain and preserve that freedom. This year's keynote speaker is Chad Hovind, lead pastor at Horizon Community Church in Cincinnati and creator of "Godonomics", a DVD series that explores God's wisdom about economic principals and the use of money. He is an engaging communicator who also enjoys sand volleyball, jet skiing and making balloon animals when he's not hanging out with his family. Plan to join other Licking County leaders and community members to hear Chad Hovind. We invite you to share this opportunity with friends and co-workers by purchasing a table of eight for your organization or group. With limited seating available, we would appreciate your efforts to fill every seat at your table(s).

For more information, including features on our speaker and volunteer opportunities, visit our website at www.lcprayerpartners.org. If you have questions, please call 740.587.1200, x.110. We will return your call as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Licking County Prayer Partners
